

University of Teacher Education Zug IBB Institute for the Management and Economics of Education

Prof. Dr. Stephan Gerhard Huber

The IBB is a university institute which contributes to research and knowledge transfer in the fields of the management and economics of education. Besides engaging in research and development, the Institute's aim is to provide services to teachers, school leaders, representatives of municipalities, ministries, and regional and national agencies as well as individuals in charge of the quality and development of educational institutions.

Range of Topics and selected Projects:

- Organization, Quality and Development in Education

comprising e.g.

- Learning Regions and communities: Networked Systems and System Leadership
- School Inspection and School Development
- School Leadership Action: Work-related Pressure and Subjective Strain
- School Turnaround in Berlin Schools

- Teacher Education, Leadership Education and Human Resource Management in Education

comprising e.g.

- Competence Profile School Management (CPSM) – an Inventory for the Self-Assessment of School Leadership
- Evaluating and Developing Quality in Teacher Education – Swiss Adaption of the German Panel Study
- Impact of Further Education and Training and Development for School Leaders

As well as the special topic:

- Youth Research (Education & Perspectives)

comprising

- Interdisciplinary Understanding of Youth: Swiss Federal Survey of Adolescents (Head of the National Research Consortium)
- Constitution of Values – The Contribution of Schooling

Selected Publications

www.Bildungsmanagement.net/Publications

Contact

www.Bildungsmanagement.net/EN and www.EduLead.net and www.EducationSymposium.net